

KRIS HOWARD has been the choir director at St. John Chrysostom Church in Fort Wayne, Indiana since 2005 and was appointed to the Archdiocese Department of Sacred Music in 2010 to serve as the Diocesan Coordinator for the Diocese of Toledo and the Midwest. He was tonsured a Reader in 2009 and is the lead chanter at his parish. Kris has been the Co-coordinator of the Sacred Music Institutes since 2020, and served as technical support for the Department's virtual education programs during 2020-21. Kris earned his PharmD degree in 2001, is an associate of the American College of Cardiology, and works as a clinical pharmacy specialist in cardiology at Parkview Regional Medical Center and Parkview Cardiology in Fort Wayne. Kris sings tenor in the Bach Collegium Fort Wayne and loves to try out new skills he has learned on the Food Network.
