

Fr. Adam Lowell Roberts is the pastor of St. Paul Antiochian Orthodox Church in Katy, TX. He is a co-founder of Camp St Thekla, written several books, hosted the "Go Forth" podcast on Ancient Faith Radio, hosted the weekly live broadcast "Stories That Work" for two years for the Department of Missions and Evangelism, is a documentarian. In 2022, Fr. Adam was appointed President of St. Athanasius Academy of Orthodox Theology. He also has a Masters of Theology in Pastoral Counseling from the University of Balamand. In his counseling, he has counseled young adults and college students who are struggling with purpose.