

Fr. Gregory Farman is the Assistant Pastor at Ss. Constantine and Helen Antiochian Orthodox Church in Carrollton, Tx. Both Fr. Gregory and his wife Kh. Priscilla were received into the Orthodox faith at St. Elias Church in Austin, in 2005. After completing the St. Stephen's program, Gregory became Deacon Gregory at Theophany of 2011. He was ordained to the priesthood at Ss. Constantine and Helen in February 2022.

Fr. Gregory and Kh. Priscilla have been blessed with four grown children and six grandchildren. Now in their 51st year of marriage, they shared a career in publishing before retiring, moving to Grapevine, and joining the parish of Saints Constantine and Helen. Father Gregory now chairs the Outreach Committee. He received his education from Oberlin College (B.A. in Economics), The University of Texas at Austin (M. Ed in Social Studies), and Stanford University (Ph.D. in Social Psychology and Education). He recently published Sinaites: the Journeys of Gregory of Sinai, a fictional account of the life and travels of his name saint.