

Deacon Mark Sultani grew up at St. Mary's Antiochian Orthodox Church in Livonia, Michigan. He graduated from St. Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary in May of 2023 and was married to his lovely wife Nicole that same month. They moved to Wichita, Kansas in July where he has worked as the Pastoral Assistant at St. George Orthodox Christian Cathedral. He was ordained to the holy diaconate by His Eminence, Metropolitan SABA at St. George Cathedral on April 27, 2024..